I have access to the local county crisis line and understand that the national suicide crisis line, 1-800-273-TALK [8255] is another resource. The local crisis lines are listed below. I have been provided with Dr. Wishnick's email address and phone number and understand that in a crisis I will contact her by phone.

If a need for direct, face to face emergency services arises, it is my responsibility to contact providers in my area such as visiting a local Emergency Room or to contact this office for a face to face appointment if I am in the provider's geographical area. I understand that an opening with the provider may not be immediately available.
6. I may decline any telepsychology services at any time without jeopardizing my access to future care, services, and benefits.
7. These services rely on technology, which allows for greater convenience in service delivery. There are risks in transmitting information over the internet that include, but are not limited to, breaches of confidentiality, theft of personal information, and disruption of service due to technical difficulties.
8. Telepsychology is not appropriate for all clients or situations. When needed, my psychologist and I will reassess the appropriateness of continuing to deliver services to me through the use of technology.
9. In emergencies, in the event of disruption of service, or for routine or administrative reasons, it may be necessary to communicate by other means. Circumstances include: 1) emergency situations 2) should service be disrupted and 3) for other communication.
